

Fort Anderson
June 24, 1863

Dear Sister,

William Conner of our Co. on furlough will give you this. We are all well, every thing quiet. The weather is as pleasant as usual and twice as hot as common,

No news of importance and nothing worth writing about. My care to all, Please write soon.

Yours in haste,

John